

THE TURKISH JOURNAL OF GASTROENTEROLOGY

From the Editor

Dear Colleagues,

We are publishing the October/November issue in October as we planned. It is a pleasure of us as to tell you that, published reviews in 2014 were downloaded more than 11.000 times in total and even some Letter to the Editors were downloaded more than

Our articles are being paid much interest with very high download numbers.

We are refunding the submission fees for articles that have been rejected without review process.

1000 times per each. The authors are getting invitations to have their works included in planned books and we are also receiving reprint requests from industry. We are adamant to keep and, if possible, increase the quality of the journal for any sake and resolute to prefer quality over appealing. We started to refund the submission fee for articles that are rejected outright from the editorial office without review process and we are also refunding the fees to the authors whose studies have been rejected in this fashion in 2014. We repeat our request for submission of your high quality original articles to Turk J Gastroenterol.

Prof. Hakan Şentürk
Editor in Chief